

PAUL RAYMOND ILES, MPhil, MLitt, FHEA, FRSA. Theatrical Manager; Principal Lecturer, Liverpool Institute for Performing Arts (2007-); Associate Director, Georgian Theatre Royal, Richmond (2003-), Trustee, Leeds Grand Theatre and Opera House Limited (2007-), Director, Northern Broadsides Theatre Company Limited, Halifax (2006-). Born 11 April 1952, Greenwich. Education: Kimbolton School; Glasgow University. Assistant Stage Manager, Victoria Theatre, Salford (1970), House Manager, Northampton Repertory Theatre (1971), Public Relations Officer, Ipswich Arts Theatre (1972). Concurrently: General Manager, Watermill Theatre of Newbury, Business Manager, 69 Theatre Company at the Manchester Royal Exchange and Finance Officer, Oxford Playhouse Company (1973-76). In Australia: General Manager & Director, Nimrod Theatre Company of Sydney (1976-80), General Manager, State Theatre Company at the Adelaide Festival Centre (1980-1982), Founding Producer, North Queensland Theatre Company (1982-1987). Australian Citizen. General Manager & Chief Executive, Blackpool Grand Theatre (1988-1992 and 2005-2007, Trustee 2003-04), Foundation General Manager & Chief Executive, Edinburgh Festival Theatre (1992-1996). Lecturer, Queen Margaret University, Edinburgh (1997-2001), Theatre consultant, The Laughing Audience (1996-), Trustee, The Theatres Trust (1996-2005), Member, Scottish Arts Council (1996-1999), Trustee, Duke's Playhouse Limited, Lancaster (1991-1995), Trustee, Ballet Rambert Limited (1993-1997), Director, Gloria Theatre Limited (1991-1998).